

I consider it grossly unfair that Sinclair Broadcasting is using the public airwaves to broadcast an Anti-Kerry "documentary" only a few days before the election. The airwaves belong to the public - that's me in part - and I object to having them used to electioneer for a cause I oppose.

I understand that stations licensed by the FCC are required to serve the public good, not a particular political agenda. I am asking that the FCC use its authority to prohibit Sinclair from using its broadcasting privilege for partisan purposes, and restore a "fairness" doctrine.

Thanks, and best regards - Dan Metzger
